Pioneer 1983

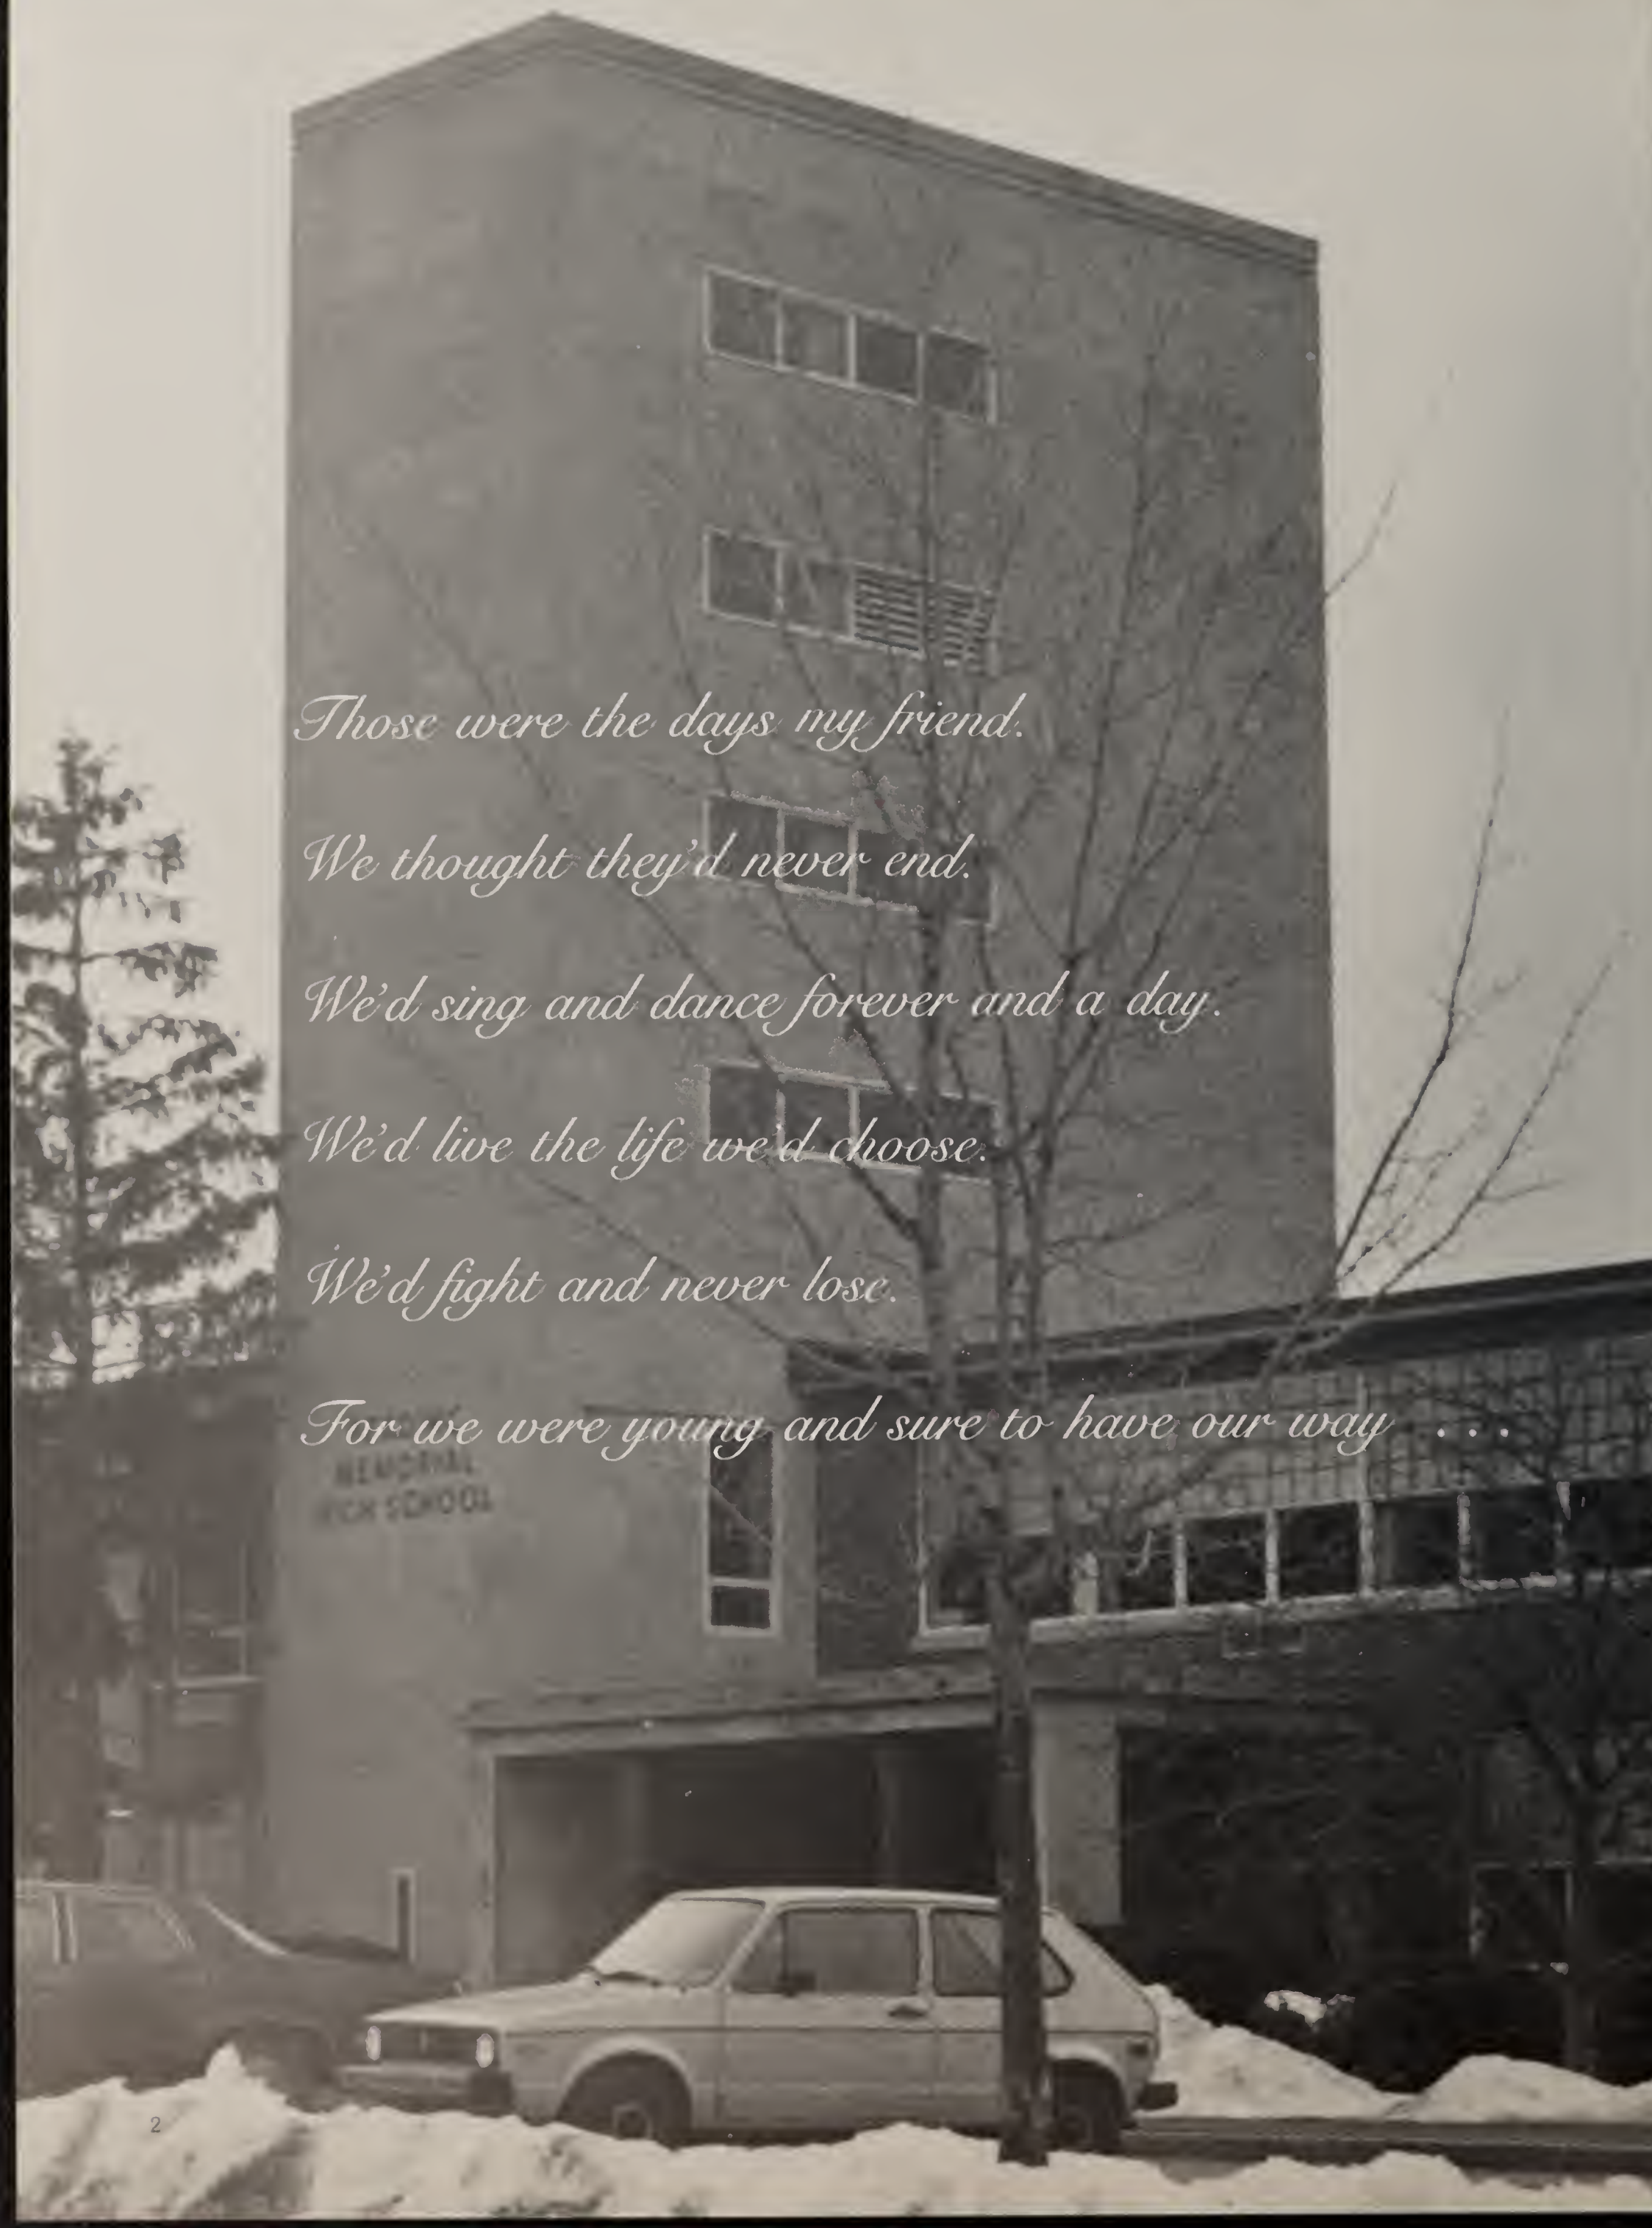

Those were the days my friend.
We thought they'd never end.
We'd sing and dance forever and a day.
We'd live the life we'd choose.
We'd fight and never lose.
For we were young and sure to have our way . . .

Editors' Note

Hey, guess what? Next week is my big class reunion. Quick, where did I put the yearbook? There it is . . . Did I really look like that? . . . I can't believe we actually wore those clothes. They are so funny looking now . . . Oh, I remember doing that . . . I can't believe it was that long ago. It seems like yesterday . . . Those were the days.

Oh sure, there were hard times, even rotten times, but there were good times, too. Football and basketball games, one-act plays, the back parking lot, all those chaotic club meetings and parties were all places to laugh and have a good time. Who could forget all the fun we had?

As graduation neared, the editors of Pioneer '83 planned and constructed the yearbook with the thought that opening this book many years from now will remind every member of the class of '83 of the four years we spent together. Before long, life during our high school years will be a pleasure to remember. The support, encouragement, and love from our families, teachers, and most importantly friends will remain with us always.

As seniors we looked forward to "getting out"; leaving the corridors and classrooms which had become all too familiar over our four years at R.M.H.S. The good and bad were mixed together. However, in years to come we will all look back on our high school years and the good memories will prevail. Only then will we understand that those four years were the best times of our lives. Those were the days!

Sincerely

DEDICATION

MRS. EPSTEIN

Mrs. Rosalyn Epstein was more than merely a guidance counselor to our class; she was a part of it. At class functions, such as apple picking or dances, which were scarcely supported by seniors themselves, one could always find Mrs. Epstein. She was with us during our good days, laughing and joining in the fun we had together as a class. She was also there when our days were not so bright and cheery. She supported and helped many of us and gave us the strength to go on. For all of us, through our ups and downs during the four years, she saw us grow from youngsters to young adults ready to face the world and leave our marks on it.

Looking back, we can remember and appreciate the mark Mrs. Epstein has left on each of us, from freshman year introductions to senior year goodbyes. Who will forget that first shaky step into the guidance office freshman year? You checked the appointment slip you received in homeroom one last time to be sure it was your name, today's date, and the right time. "Why do they want me in here?" many of us asked ourselves.

Mrs. Epstein's goal is to show each and every student what the guidance office is for, so that each will lose his fear of it and feel welcome. Well, by the time senior year rolled around, our attitudes toward the guidance office had definitely changed. We waltzed constantly in and out of there, all fears gone.

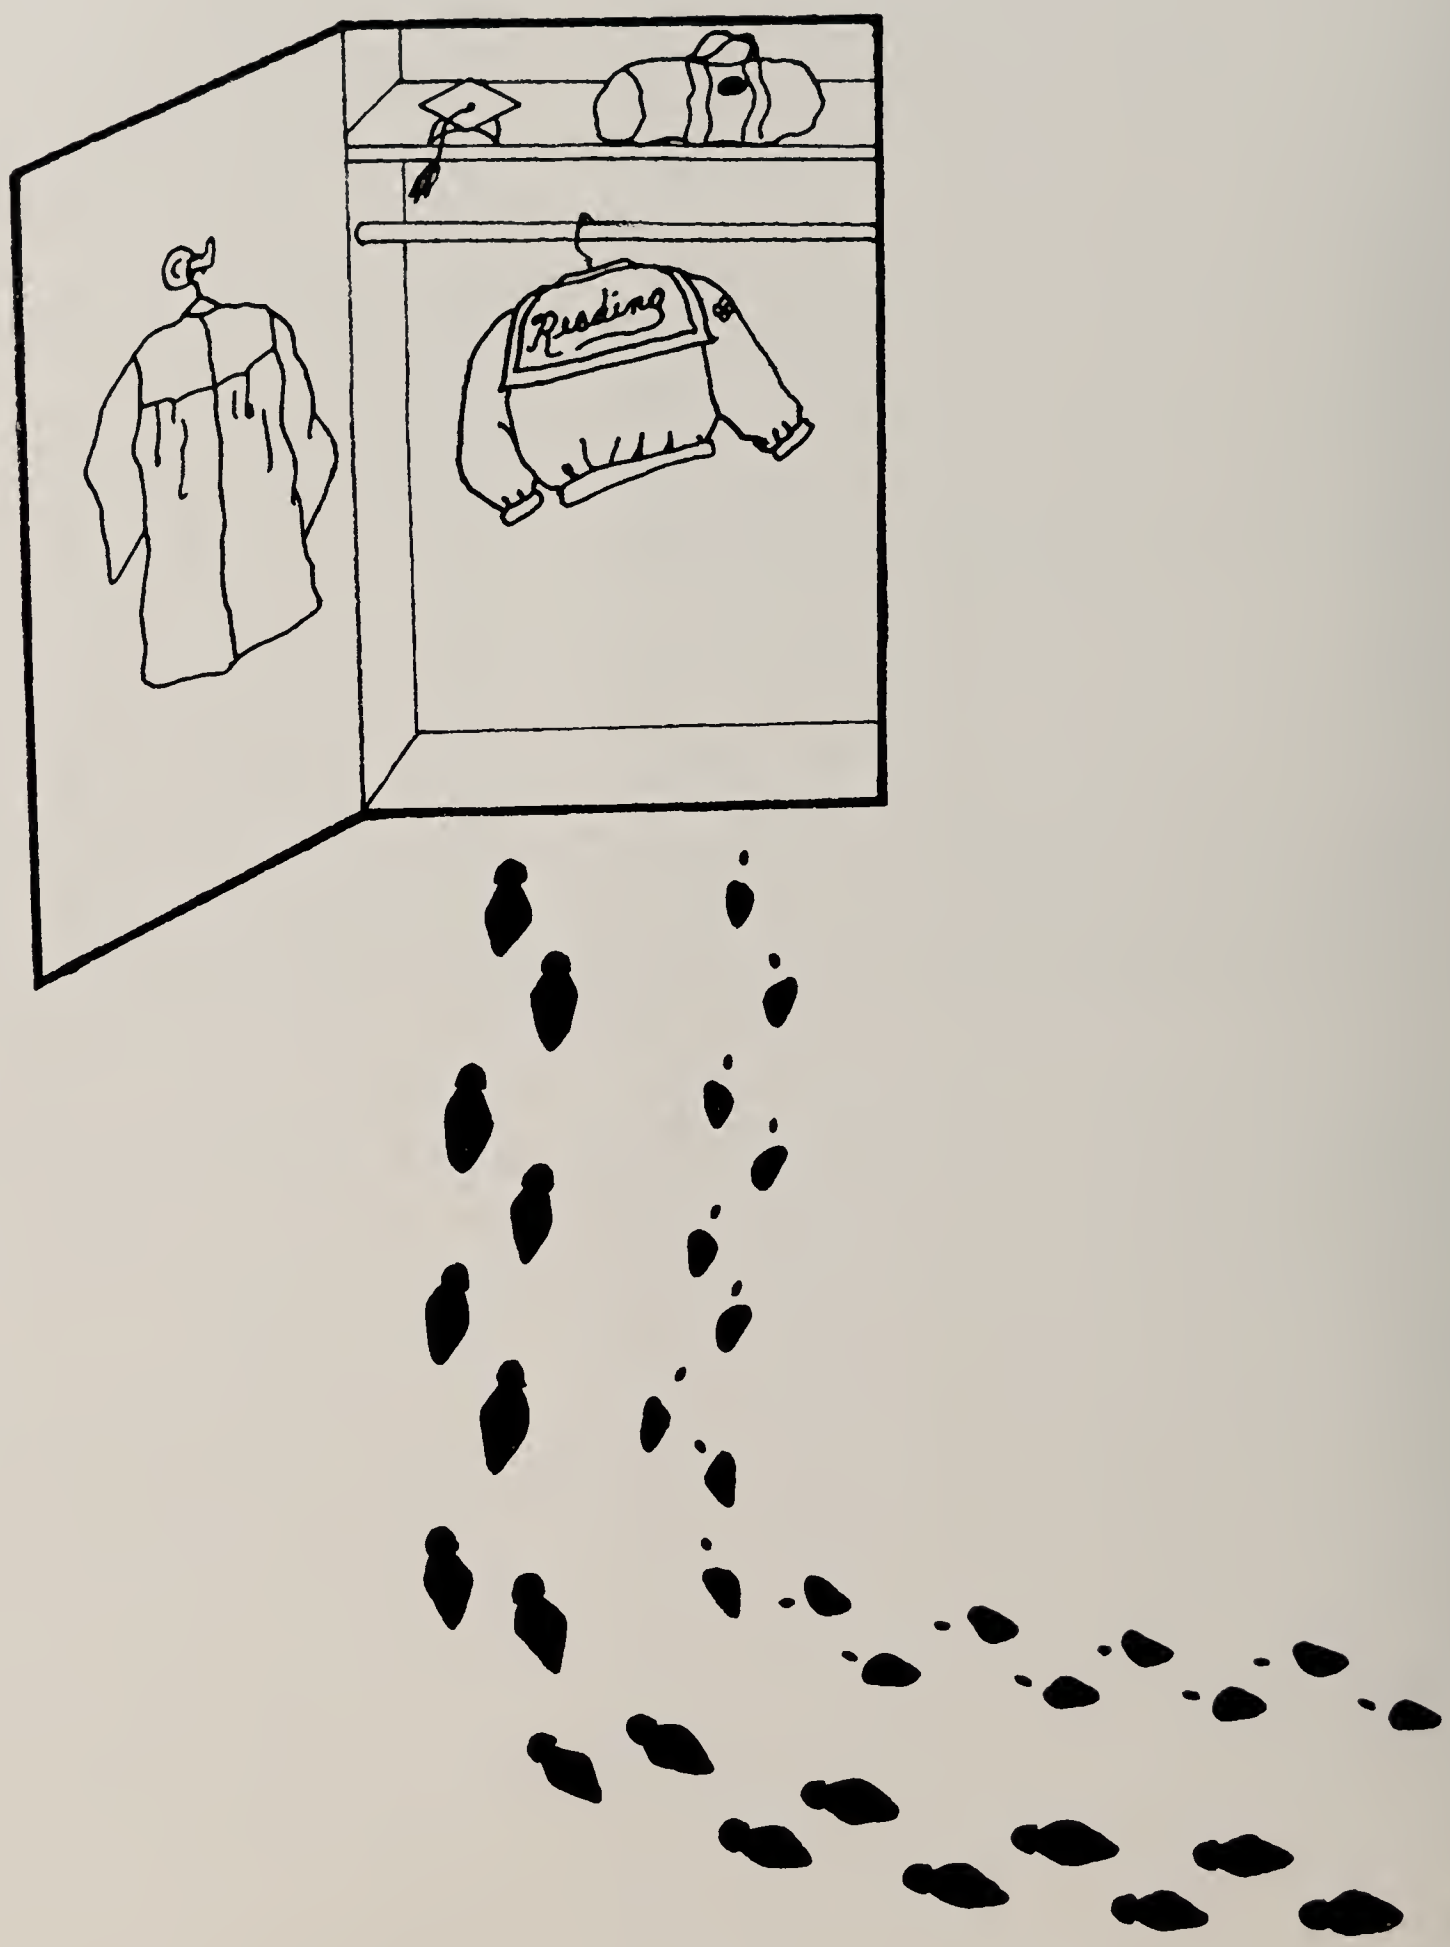

Mrs. Epstein accomplished her goal, but her efforts by no means ended there. Take those infamous Wednesday morning announcements . . . the senior class groaned, then listened to the rush of talk that ended with, "Thanks, Mrs. E." We groaned at the thought of hours of tedious work we had to do answering long, sometimes ridiculous questions in order to complete college applications before the deadlines.

How many of us would have made that deadline if we weren't reminded of it? How many of us would be where we are now?

Mrs. Epstein's untiring energy and cheerfulness, while consistently working harder than anyone ever expected, is the result of her caring about us. She wants nothing but the very best for each member of the class of 1983. Why else would she scamper down the halls with a smile on her face on a Monday morning?

For all her time, help, patience, and especially the love she extended to all of us over our four years at R.M.H.S., we are in debt to Mrs. Epstein.

Thanks Mrs. E.
The Class of 1983.

SENIOR CLASS ADVISOR

To my friends, the Class of '83:

As your senior year comes to a close, I realize that you will soon be gone and I am sad to think of R.M.H.S. without you. You have been very special to me and I will cherish the memories of our time together.

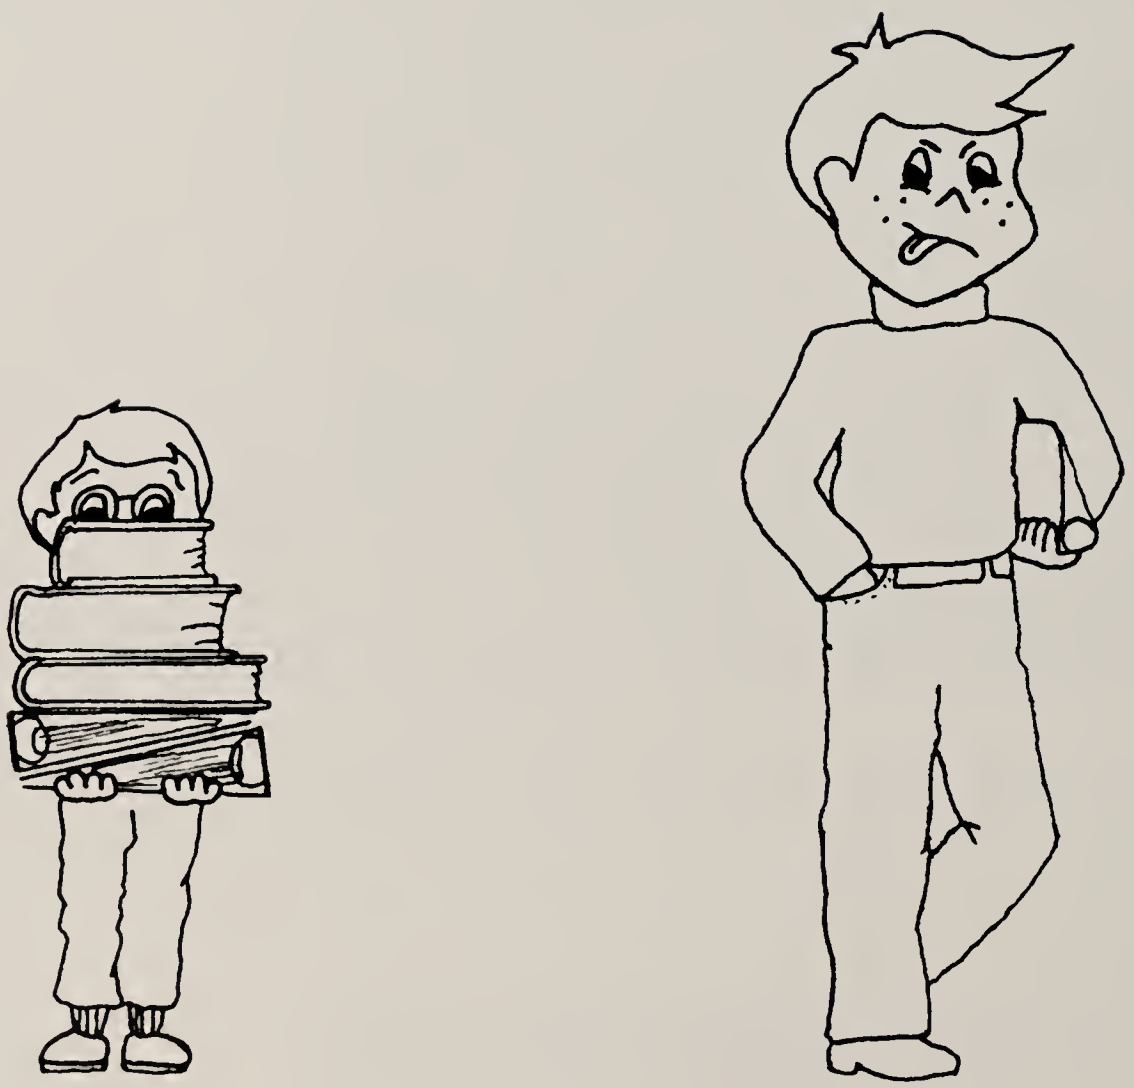

When I volunteered to be your advisor in June '81, I had no idea what the job would involve, nor how committed I would become to your class. To say that I have loved every minute of being your advisor would be untrue — it was often a great deal of hard work and sometimes frustrating. However, most of the time, I truly enjoyed working with you, getting to know you, and watching you grow into the confident young adults you have become.

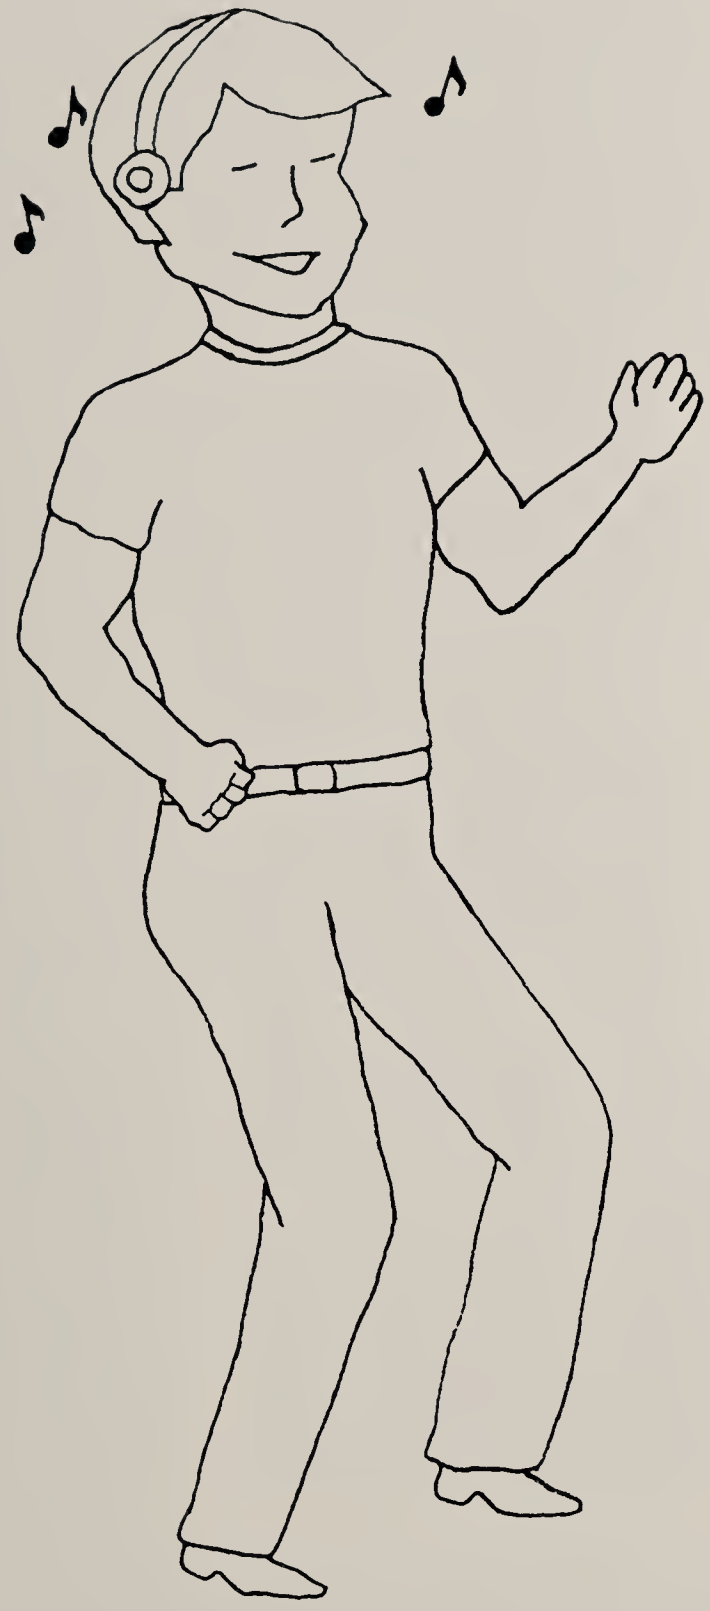

I congratulate you on all your accomplishments. You should be especially proud of your class officers, Kevin D., Kevin M., Ann, and Gina, as well as the Senior Class Committee. They have worked hard to make the last two years a success.

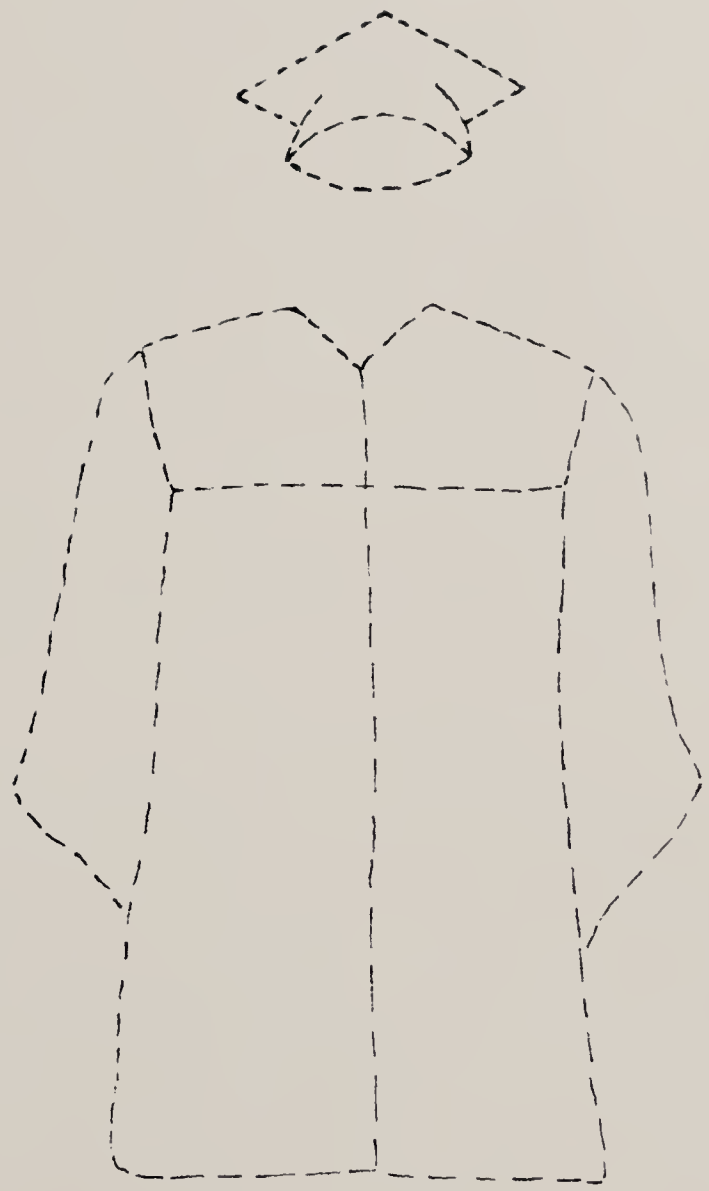

As you leave R.M.H.S., be proud of all that you have accomplished. Continue to work hard to be everything that you can be. Come back to visit us — we will miss you.

Amités,
Gina M. Healy

A.F.S. Club

The main goal of the AFS Club is to provide support and friendship for students from other countries who come to Reading for the year through the AFS Program. The activities of the AFS Club are primarily social and cultural — a summer cookout to welcome the new students, an in-school reception, Halloween party, ushering at the Christmas and Spring Revels, and others. The most popular activity, however, is the short term exchange. Each year members take one or two five-day trips to other American states and in return host members from the clubs in those states. Recent exchanges have been held with Stamford, Ct., Camden, Me. and Rocky Mount, NC.

To help finance these trips, fundraising events are held throughout the year. If you've ever bought a candied apple at a football game, you've no doubt helped one of your classmates go on an AFS exchange.

The Wargamer's Club had a successful second year. This relatively new club has produced a number of skillful game players. These players will always remember the challenging chess tournies and the occasional Stratego battles on Monday. A chess board, some odd shaped dice, or a plastic dagger, along with the rule manuals have practically made game experts of every member.

President Jim Orgettas and Vice President Chris Davidson have done a tremendous job planning the tournaments and games, and Treasurer Dave Green did an excellent job in establishing a treasury. Dan Johnston was this year's secretary.

Not everyone is a Wargamer, but those who are had a great year in becoming one. The Club would like to express a special thanks to Advisor Ms. Mishler and wish best of luck to next year's officers.

Distributive Ed.

Most people at Reading High School have a misconception of Distributive Education. It is not just a work/study program where students can get out at 12:00 and go home. The student of D.E. must have a required amount of hours in order to graduate. Mr. Levesque not only gets his kids jobs, but also checks to see if they are doing the best job they can. The student also works in class for a period and a half, as well as helping to run the school store.

Distributive Education is a valuable program for students interested in the retail business.

Student Council

With the guidance of President Ron Bashford and Advisor Rena Mirkin, the Student Council has grown to over twenty responsible members. These hard working students have helped to make the council an influential and financially successful group. Money raised by various activities has been donated to scholarship and celebrity speaker funds. It also has been used to pay for expensive equipment which will benefit the school for years to come.

Advisory Council

The purpose of the Student Advisory Council is to address major issues affecting the students of RMHS and to act as a liaison between them and the administration. Part of the groups' responsibility is to meet with the Reading School Committee to discuss how well the system serves the community and how it might be improved in the future.

Seated: John Barrett, Sue Nordberg. Standing: Kevin Daly, Mrs. Mirkin, Phil Daly.

French Club

This year the French Club had quite a few members who have enjoyed participating in many varied activities relating to France and the French. The French Club, which is advised by Mrs. Singleton, began the year with its annual French Club dinner held in the teachers' cafeteria. The forty teachers and parents who attended were pleased with the quaint atmosphere and fine food like that of an authentic French restaurant.

During the course of the year the French Club went to see two French movies and sponsored many money-making events. At the end of the year this money is put toward a trip to a French restaurant in Boston.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club was organized this year. The elected officers include President Peter DeCoste, Vice-President Diane O'Hala, Secretary Kristen Carey, and Treasurer Barbara Bashore. Mrs. Sweeney is the advisor.

A membership of 59 meets monthly to discuss activities which have included the decoration of Room 335 with Spanish projects and a trip to GuadalaHarry's restaurant in Boston. A buffet dinner using Hispanic recipes is planned for Spring.

Not offered at RMHS, German can be explored by interested students through a Mini-Course offered by Mrs. Sweeney, The course introduces members to German language, history, and customs.

The Mini-Course gives the students an opportunity to compare German lifestyle to our own, observe German influence in the U.S., and compare East and West Germany and East and West Berlin. Presentations by students who have travelled to Germany and who have hosted German students supplement the course.

High Happenings

"High Happenings" is RMHS's student voice in the "Daily Times and Chronicle." Thanks to the generosity of Editor Bruce Morang, space is regularly provided for students writing on high school news and features, often accompanied with pictures by Mr. Dick Gillis.

Editor Yvonne Dunn and Asst. Editor Tricia Callaghan have performed their responsibilities exceptionally this year as they have created and assigned news to writers and have written stories themselves.

Not only may students, faculty and parents read news current at RMHS, citizens of the town can be made aware of what Reading's youth is accomplishing.

The Photography Club is a new organization which began at the beginning of the school year. It is an informative club aimed at giving its members new ideas and helpful hints in photography.

The Club supplies its members with film, photographic paper and chemicals. In order to buy the paper and chemicals the Club had a bake sale during the mid-year exams and raised over $30. The Club has also had several helpful donations such as film, bulk loaders, and afterschool use of the darkroom.

There are fifteen members in the club. In order for equal representation of every member, a Board of Directors was nominated: Lance Brown, Wendy Wooldridge, Johanna Silvaggi, and Michael Worley.

Math Team

The Math Team, under the direction of Mr. Rhodes and Mr. Turner, competed in five meets in the Greater Boston Math League comprising ten teams in the area. This years meets were held at Somerville, Lexington, Concord-Carlisle, Winchester and Wayland. Nancy Walcott was the top freshman scorer in the entire league.

This years team started having practices every Tuesday. This was something the team had not done in the past. New files of past years tests were made up for practice purposes. A new and greater importance was also attached to our competition in the New England Math League Exam. This monthly exam saw an average of 70 students take part.

Debate Team

The Debate Team was initiated this year by Dr. Robert Munnelly, Assistant-Superintendent of Schools. Members began debating almost immediately after the team was formed, participating in formal and informal matches around the state.

As the members have researched data to support the affirmative or negative sides of issues, they have learned the skills of analysis and persuasion.

The achievement of the fledgling organization has been promising with high hopes for the future.

Nancy Cuellar

Every time I meet someone, they ask me, "How do you like it here?" It is very hard for me to explain in a few words how I feel in this country. All my life I dreamed of going away with AFS because to me it meant having many new experiences, but at the same time I used to think how hard it would be for me to be away from my own family.

On August 16 my AFS experience began. I will never forget my first month; everything was hard for me because my English was very bad. Little by little things became better. I met very nice people and in a little time I had many friends. I think the principal thing that made any of my problems work out was my family here. They were very nice in all moments with me. They made it easier for me everyday.

High school is very fun for me although it is difficult to understand the classes. I always have a good time. I will never forget my friend in History class, Dean. He made every class very fun. Another person very special to me is Richard Avola. He made things easier when I could not speak English well. Also, Karen McSorley. I will remember them for all of my life.

I have four other very special friends: Gina Iannetti, Arlene Plansky, Mary Hoyt, and Mary Sullivan. To me they will always be very special.

Reading High was different for me, as was the food. The time passed very quickly and my year in a little while will be over. But, I will have many nice remembrances of a family that is now my own family.

The hardest thing to do was learn English. My accent is funny but some people can not tell where I am from. My fondest memories are of my many, very nice friends, AFS weekends and most importantly my family, the Wilsons.

Ann Gugger

Me, Ann Gugger, living in France for two months? I never could have imagined what was in store for me. I spent the summer between Junior and Senior on a dairy farm in Normandie, France, about an hour outside of Paris. Just me, the cows, and a relatively unknown language!

Going from Reading, the epitome of suburbia, to a rural town of 650 people, was quite a switch! One learns such useful information as if one steps in cow manure with the left foot, it is good luck, but with the right foot is bad luck. Helping to kill and pluck chickens was . . . an experience!

Adapting to a new culture leaves a person vulnerable to a lot of different situations. I talked to myself a lot, especially since no one else could understand me. The food, most of which was unbelievably delicious, was an adventure. Rabbit is incredibly good, though it is tough to eat a bunny who might once have been your friend!

Communication problems grew fewer as the weeks wore on. I knew I was becoming fluent when I could understand jokes and my five year old brother!

I did quite a bit of sight-seeing in my ten week stay. Some of the places I visited included Paris, Mt. St. Michel and every castle, manor and cathedral within driving distance. In the United States, people consider landmarks of 200 years of age as "old", but in France, even 200 years in infancy. I lived in a house dating back to the Fourteenth Century!

I came away from this experience with a host of new friends, information, personal insight, and overweight luggage.

Karen McSorley

Honduras. To most people it means nothing. To me it is the world. It is a whole part of me and my world that will remain with me always, helping me grow and changing the shape of my life.

I had always wanted to go away with AFS, and when I applied, I expected to go to Europe. Shortly before leaving I learned I would be going to Honduras.

My host family owned a bakery. I had a brother my age and three younger sisters.

Going to Honduras gave me the opportunity to spend the summer in school, an opportunity not open to most summer AFS students. At school I met different people and was able to learn more about life as a typical Hondurean teenager.

AFS is very special to me and thousands of others worldwide. Often people ask why and what makes it so special? Each AFS'er's experience is unique. Yet none is all good or bad. It is hard work becoming part of another family, fitting in, learning new ways and a new language. During AFS you feel the worst of the worst times and the best of the best. The hardest thing I ever have done is say good-bye to my family. Yet, I would never want to change my experience. This is why AFS is so special; it is everything — sharing, growing, learning, hard, frustrating, but, most importantly, loving.

Mary DeLai

As an AFS foreign exchange student, I travelled to the Azores during the year of 1982. The Azores are a set of islands off the coast of Spain and Portugal, owned and governed by the Portuguese. I stayed with the Torres family in the village of Achadinha on the island of St. Michael.

St. Michael, like the other islands, is farm country where people live off what they produce. Houses are made of stone and cement, roads of cobblestone. But the island is very beautiful. Here in America, when you look around you see houses. Not so there. When you look around you see miles of green farm land, the ocean or mountain tips.

The people are very traditional and a bit reserved. Younger people were more open than their elders, who just liked to stare.

My activities were basically those of a farmer. I fed animals, milked cows, picked vegetables, rode horses, or baled hay. I also went to the beach. What I really enjoyed were festivals, where villages light up their streets and churches, and people get together just to have fun.

My experience was great. I made many new friends, and now have a second family. I have come to believe that the Azores are one of the most beautiful places to live, and hope to return one day.

We'd live the life...

DOO BA DA DOO BA DO DOO BA DA YEAH!

This year's edition of the Reading Rocket football team enjoyed its most auspicious season since the Super Bowl entrant eight years ago, completing the year with an impressive 7 and 3 record. Led by tri-captains Brian O'Neil, Eric Thompson and Kevin McKenna, the Rockets provided their faithful fans with many an exciting moment. The Rockets finished third in the Middlesex League standings, but for much of the season they were considered legitimate contenders.

Brian O'Neil, the most prolific runningback in the school's recorded history, set individual records by becoming the single-season scoring leader in Rocket history and by establishing a new season rushing record. Dave Nugent, Bobby Angelo and Mike Zaramba anchored the line of scrimmage while Phil Denbow, Dominic Pustizzi and David Button were all stalwart performers throughout the season.

During the fall campaign the Rockets demonstrated poise, talent, enthusiasm and class. Many of the players were actively recruited by various colleges and universities. This team's exploits will be permanently etched in the Reading Rocket annals.

A TRUE SHOW OF ROCKET SPORTSMANSHIP

This year's soccer team, although compiling a relatively unimpressive record, still displayed the qualities which make a championship club. Indeed, this year's team lacked not in spirit, enthusiasm or hustle; what they needed were a few more opportune breaks. Led by Middlesex league All-Star goalie and Co-Captain David Gray, and Co-Captain Jamie Clark, the team suffered many unfortunate and frustrating losses. Yet, even in the face of defeat, the Rockets refused to be submissive. Their "never say die" attitude accounted for the multitude of down-to-the-wire games. The highlight of the season was the Rocket's outstanding performance against second place Belmont, a game which ended in a tie. The team's final record, 1-14-3, does not do justice to the fine 1982 Soccer team.

HARRIERS RUN THROUGH THE FIELD . . .

The girls' cross country program has traditionally been very strong. The 1983 season was no exception. The team finished third, with seven wins and two losses, behind both Wakefield and Winchester respectively. Captains Monica Holahan and Gayle Killam along with Ellen McSweeney and junior superstar Gail Saunders led the way.

The season itself progressed almost exactly according to schedule. Meets that Coach Garland expected to lose were lost; likewise, meets that were expected wins were usually won. The success of the season was partly due to a good group of hard working freshmen who improved steadily throughout the season. They provided some essential points in the course of the season. Gayle Killam stated that, "This year was a fine building year. The underclassmen were given some much needed experience."

The team scored very well overall at the invitationals. Most of the team would agree that the Fall Cross Country season was hard work, but fun.

The 1982 Cross Country Rockets continued to withold the tradition of a strong team. They exibited courage, pride, determination and a strong sense of team character. Compiling a record of seven wins and two losses, the Rockets were defeated only by Belmont and Wakefield. Captain Kevin Daly, the team's leader, George Joudrie, Shaun McHugh, James Collins and Jeffrey Jankun were all key varsity performers. A large group of talented underclassmen also contributed to the team's depth.

Daly has run Cross Country since his Freshman year. "The experience of working with a dedicated group of guys for four years in a sport where everyone sticks together is something I'll never forget. I've learned the meaning of the word team." Congratulations to this year's graduating seniors, and to Head Coach Dave Garland, and his assistant Mr. Blodgett.

TO THE FINISH LINE

GIRLS BASKETBALL TAKES THEIR BEST SHOT

First Row: Manager Sandy Stosez, Janice Coates, Debbie Grunzweig, Carolyn Ventura, Caroline Flagg, Carol Fotino, Manager Julie Poehler. Second Row: Coach Ted Bryson, Co-Captain Kim Wooster, Leslie Berryman, Tracy Sacco, Julie Orgettas, Amy Dyment, Co-Captain Suzanne Perry, Lisa Lucci.

This year's Rockette basketball team was a vastly improved team. After suffering through a dismal winless season last year, this year's team, led by Co-Captains Kim Wooster and Suzanne Perry, have re-established themselves in the Middlesex league.

The Girls first moved into the win column this year when they beat Woburn at Reading. Once the girls got that one under their belts they went on a tear. They trounced on Winchester by 22, and won a pair of overtime games against Stoneham and Woburn. The Rockettes are now looking at a .500 season.

Their toughest loss also had a good side to it. It came at the hands of overpowering Wakefield. The girls played tough, and at one point during the second half were within six points of the lead. The Rockettes defense held the great Renée Nagarian to only twelve points.

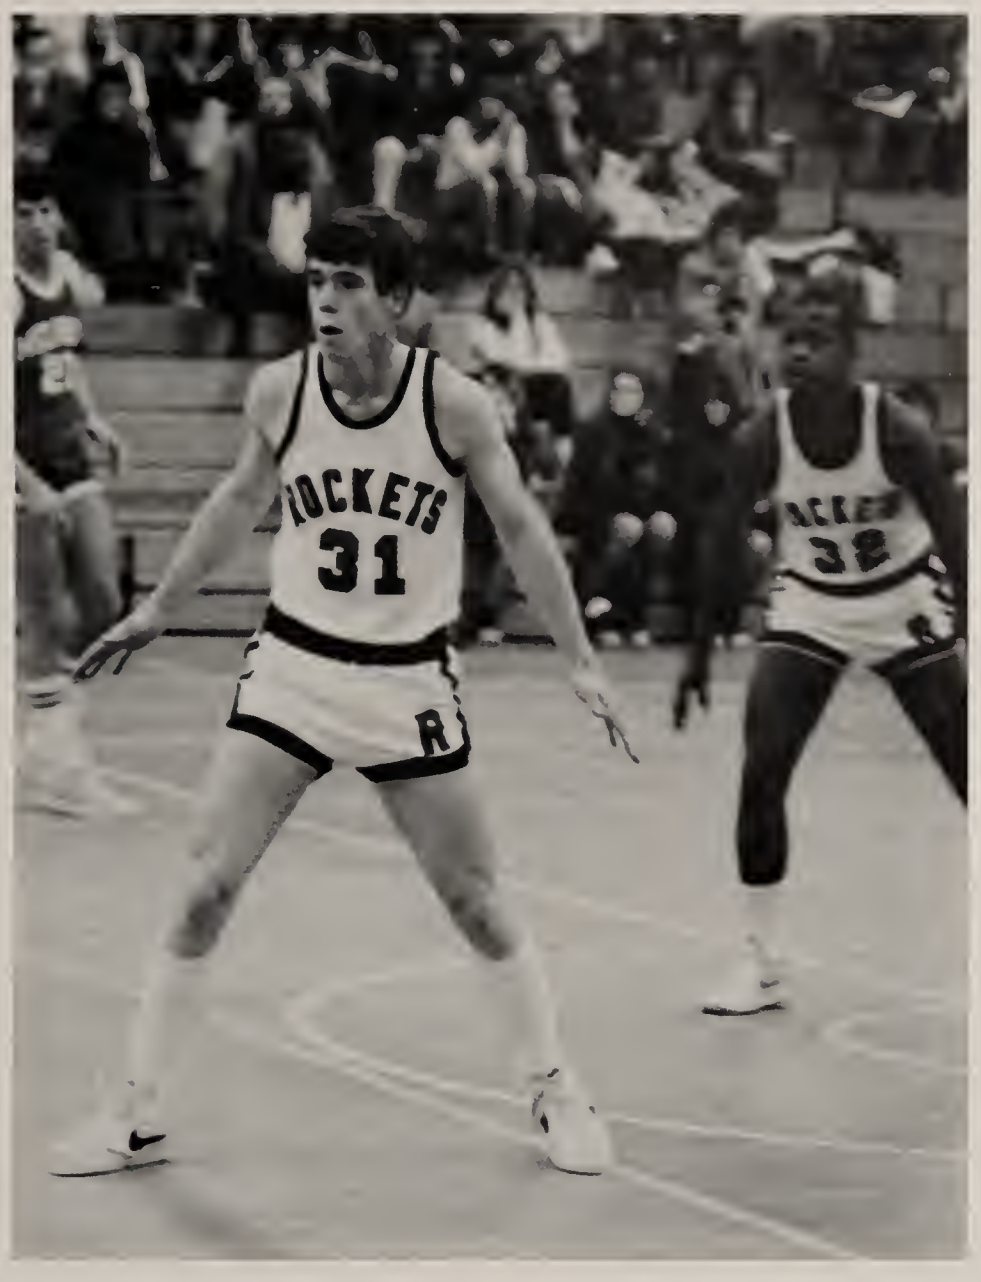

The backbone of this year's team was the performances of Junior Debbie Grunzweig and Amy Dyment. Both of them were voted to play in the league's All-Star game. Overall, it was a good season and coach Ted Bryson has to be pleased with the overall turn-a-round of the club.

"I honestly believe, given this year's sensational comeback, that we have as good a shot as any team at next year's league title." Suzanne Perry Early in the season, perhaps even before it began, Head Coach Bill Carroll realized that his team had potential. However, given the talent in the rest of the league, the goals he set for the year were, at best, modest. He understood that although talented and experienced, the club was generally small. In the end though, the Rockets proved that size isn't everything as they quickly established themselves to be legitimate tournament contenders.

The team was led by its sensational starting five. Captain Eric Thompson dominated his forward position and played with intelligence, poise and enthusiasm. David Vaughn, although a relatively small center, was a prolific scorer and rebounder. Brian Wilson, considered by many "the future" of Reading basketball, was dazzling. He was the ultimate support of the Rocket's fastbreak style. Dan Powell was the team's defensive specialist. Kevin Gibson, with his scrappy and hustling approach, intimidated many an opposing player.

For more then three-quarters of the season Reading was fighting for a tournament spot. Yet, to the distress of the coaches, players, and fans, the club went into a late season slump. The year ended with an exciting North victory in the league All-Star game. The Big Three — Thompson, Vaughn, and Will — all played exceptional games. Congratulations to the seven graduating seniors, and good luck to next year's team.

THE BIG THREE AND THE LITTLE TWO

A YOUNG TEAM FLIP FLOPS THROUGH THE SEASON

The 1983 season was a rebuilding year for the girl's gymnastics team. With the assistance and guidance of a new coach, Debbie Smith, the Rockettes saw their team's score improve with each meet. Captains Sue McCaffrey and Amy MacDonald led the team to a sub-five-hundred but nonetheless profitable season. It was a year when the relatively young gymnasts could gain experience and confidence.

The Rockettes had but three seniors on the team: Susan McCaffrey, Amy McDonald, and Christine Blacket. McCaffrey, a superb athelete, was outstanding on the beam, vault and floor. McDonald excelled on the beam and floor. On the bars Marissa Lane, who also performed well on the floor, contributed many valuable points. Lauren Trolsen, a Junior, was strong and competent on the vault. Although the team finished the season with two wins and seven losses, the future looks bright. Next year the team hopes to have both the experience and the depth necessary to achieve a winning season. The Class of 1983 wishes next years team the best of luck!

The Boy's gymnastics team had perhaps their finest season ever this year. In addition to finishing third (four wins and two losses) in the highly competative Colonial League, they qualified for the first time in their history, for the State tournament where they finished fourth place. The team's success was due primarily to a large group of talented seniors who, through pride, dedication and endurance, achieved a respectable position in the gymnastics community.

The team consisted of seven seniors, each having contributed many points in his respective event. Scott Ferrazanni and Edward Kelly shone on the rings. Phil Denbow and Michael Kilduff worked on the floor. On the high bar were Seniors Jamie Clark, Warren Dalton, and Pat Heenan. This cast was supported by a growing number of underclassmen who filled gaps and added substantial depth to the team. Good luck to next year's team, and congratulations, seniors.

BOYS VAULT OVER THEIR OPPONENTS

FIELD HOCKEY STRIVES TOWARD THEIR GOAL

The R.M.H.S. Field Hockey Team had their best year ever with a 12-5-1 record. The team was led by Co-Captains and Middlesex League All-Stars Gail Collins and Madeline Ellis. Also receiving a post-season award was Coach Kate Cremens-Basbas who was voted Middlesex League Coach of the year. However, a strong team effort, not the play of individuals, led to the success of the season.

The team's biggest victory was a 2-0 win over league rival, Woburn. The highly protested 2-2 tie between Reading and Melrose kept the team from qualifying for the state tournament. They finished with twenty-five points — one short of the twenty-six needed for a tournament berth.

The Field Hockey Team has a bright future as they plan to continue their winning ways next year.

The year started slow for the Rocket Hockey team. In December they had two wins, one loss, and two ties. Then they began to move. By February they had twelve wins, one loss, and two ties, and were on the run. But the Rockets didn't stop there, though, they went on to win six more games, ending a terrific season with a 3-0 shutout of Stoneham. Mike Golden scored two goals and Bill Thomson recorded his first career shutout. Reading, for the first time, had clinched the Middlesex League title.

The Rockets also qualified for the State Tournament and Mike Golden was honored with two titles: leading scorer and MVP in the Middlesex League. Reading also sent seven players to represent the South team in the All-Star game. They were: Mike Golden, Jon Vedder, Todd Gagnon, Geof Adams, Bill Thomson, Bnan Smith and Steven Smith. Again Reading conquered the ice. Jon Vedder had two goals and Adams had another, as the South team won, 3-1. Congratulations to the fine Rocket hockey team, and good luck seniors.

THE GOLDEN BOYS DOMINATE

GOLF TEAM FINISHES AT EVEN PAR

This year's Rocket Golf Team was a very young, but talented group. Only three starters returned with any varsity experience. They were senior Captain Todd Gagnon, senior Ken Caputo, and junior Jeff Bockman. Despite the lack of experience, the Rockets had a fine season, pleasing Head Coach Dick Gillis.

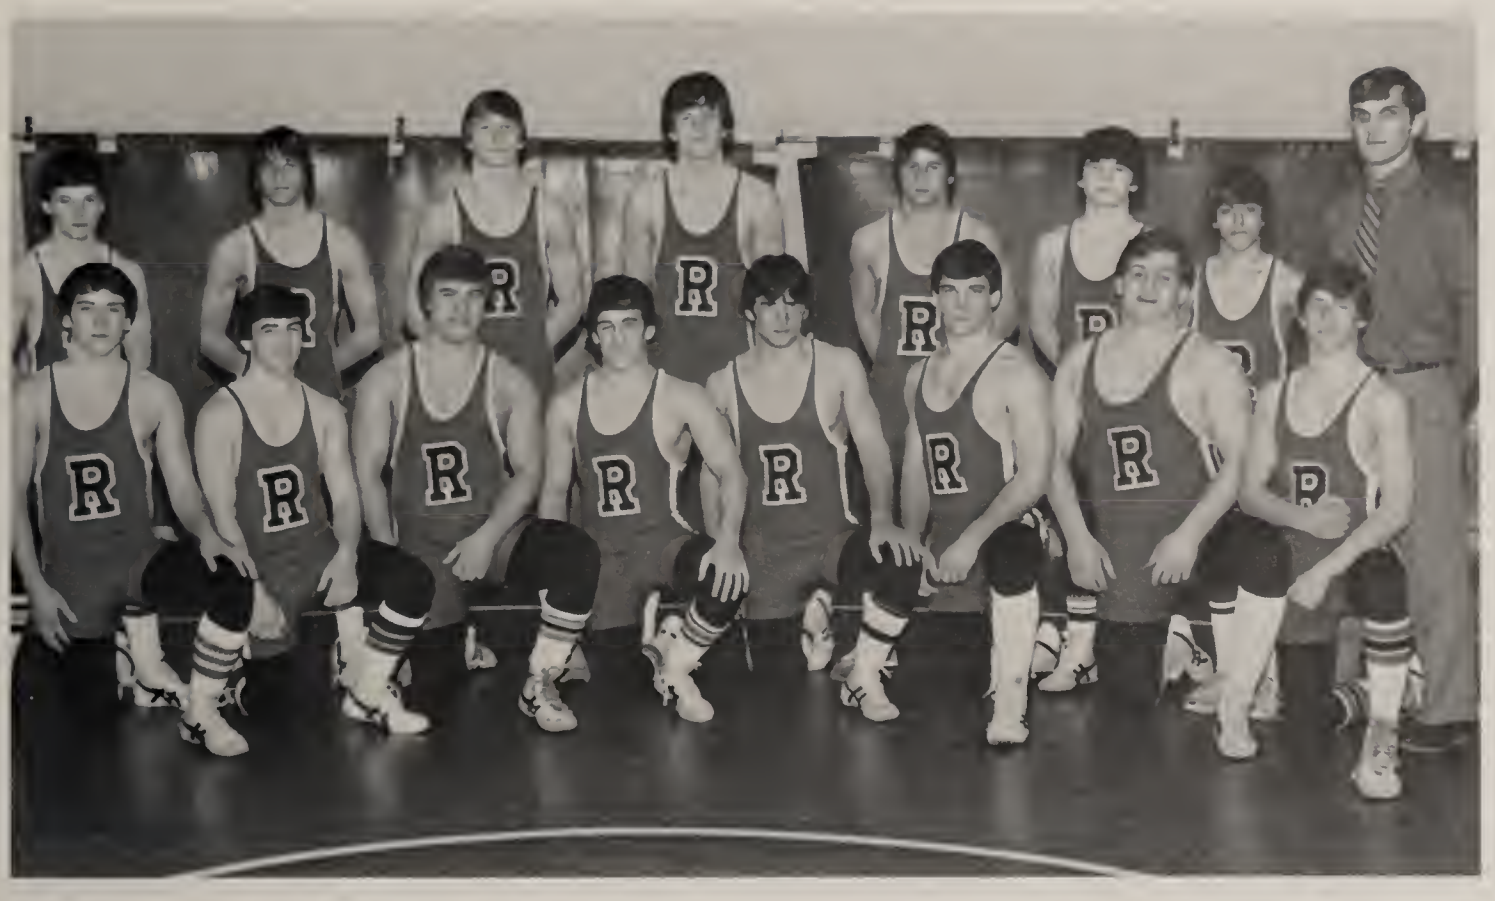

The biggest win of the Rocket's season came against defending League Champion, Watertown. The win, five and one half to three and one half in a touch match, gave the Rockets a big boost. One of the tougher losses for the Rockets came at the hands of Burlington. Although the loss was not important to the overall success of the team, it was difficult to swallow because of Reading's historical rivalry with the Burlington team.

The Rockets were led by two key team members. Todd Gagnon proved himself to be one of the Middlesex League's best performers. He placed third in the League Tournament and was named a League All-Star. Ken Caputo's performance was a pleasant surprise. He led the team win 8-2-1 record and placed eighth in the League Tournament. He was also chosen as an alternate to the League All-Star Team.

The team now turns its attention to next year's team led by Captain Jeff Bochman. They hope for a good season to come.

The Reading Rocket wrestling team completed an impressive 11-5 dual meet season. The team was led by senior Co-Captains Robert Jutras and Kevin McKenna. The Rockets opened the season with an overwhelming shut-out victory over North Reading. The team then went on to beat Melrose for only the second time in twenty years. Included in this start was a gutsy comeback victory over Tewksbury, where the Rockets overcame an early twenty-five point deficit.

The Rockets' biggest and most disappointing loss came at the hands of Burlington. Both teams were 6-0 entering the contest, yet one team was bound to suffer their first defeat. Reading was that team, as they went down 26-25. The Rockets ended the dual meet season at 11-5, 6-1 in the league for second place.

Reading's individuals shined at the Salem Christmas Tournament, where Reading had four champions: Brian O'Neil, Bob Angelo, Mike Crispo, and Bill Keefe. In the prestigious Lowell Holiday Tournament Bob Jutras took second place while Brian O'Neil took third. This tournament is considered perhaps the toughest in the state. At the Methuen Invitational Bob Jutras, Mike Crispo, Brian O'Neil, Bob Angelo, and Bill Hughes all placed in the top three. Reading's success was due to a lineup loaded with experienced seniors as well as crucial contributions from the underclassmen.

No opposing team scored more than 23 out of a possible 86 points against the Rockettes this season. That is an amazing statistic considering the talent which abounds in the Middlesex league. Unfortunately for the rest of the league, most of the real talent is found on one team: the Reading Rockettes. Under the leadership of Head Coach Peter Clarke, and captains Jane Schloth and Cheryl Vedder, the team went undefeated in the Middlesex league.

"Every season is special. Each is remembered for different reasons. In future years it will be easy to recall your accomplishments. You powered your way to your second Middlesex league title, and became the first track team to win the State championship. You set your goals high and in doing so risked failure and disappointment. But what I will remember most about all of you was the sense of pride that you exhibited at every meet. No matter who you ran against, you gave nothing less than your best efforts — and that is the mark of a championship team." — Peter Clarke

ARE VICTORIOUS AGAIN!

Reading track has become synonomous with victory. The 1983 indoor track season was but further verification of this fact. For the second consecutive year Reading went undefeated and coasted to the Middlesex League title and captured the Class B State Relay Crown. Seniors and underclassmen alike are responsible for the perfect season.

Captains Kevin Fallon and Keith Klepeis were the backbone of the team. Fallon, in his fourth straight year of varsity competition, had the league's best time in both the 45 yard dash and the 300. He was also selected as a league All-Star. Klepeis, the league's premier middle distance man, ran to third place in the Northern Area meet and had the league's best time in the 600. Senior Jeff Kreuger was outstanding in the High Hurdles. Seniors David Button, Matt Cain, Kevin Daly and George Joudrie were also instrumental in the Rocket's success.

Junior David Girourd ran the fastest indoor quarter mile ever for the Rockets. He was also undefeated and a league All-Star in the 300. With the majority of the team's points being scored by Seniors, the depth of the team was left to a talented group of underclassmen. Reading's victory at the State Relays was a sure indicator of the team's great depth. Next year the Rockets, under Head Coach Paul Soule, look to another excellent, but typical season.

THE COMPUTER REVOLUTION

As United States History students we became familiar with such terms as the "American Revolution" and the "Industrial Revolution", yet as members of society in the eighties we are witnessing, first hand, perhaps an equally significant phenomenon: the Computer Revolution. Reading, the United States, and most all of the civilized world is being exposed to and directly influenced by this highly versatile machine.

In a recent study, U.S. News reported that as of 1983 there were more than 173,000 computer terminals present in Public High Schools around the country, meaning approximately 2.2 terminals per school. In Reading High School alone, the number of computers has more than doubled since 1979. This is due mainly to a sharp increase of interest in the high-tech field, and an overwhelming demand for computer literacy in the working world. Reading's Business and Math departments are well aware of this fact and have taken huge strides to prepare students for the new world of computers.

This revolutionary device is found in a myriad of forms. Stereos, televisons, cash registers, banks, schools, and our National Defense are all computerized. Hundreds of young, ambitious capitalists, risking it all in the high-tech industry, have become millionaires overnight. Yet, the computer has also cost many a worker his job; a possible reason for the near record unemployment in our country.

Video games, a controversial issue in and of itself, have increased dramatically in popularity through the past several years. Despite a ban of the games in Reading, a large group of faithful players travel to surrounding communities, such as North Reading or Tewksbury to play. The computer then, is more than just a mere machine, it is a responsible worker, a form of entertainment and education and, most importantly, a way of life.

JUNIOR PROM — MOON DANCE

A CHRISTMAS CELEBRATION

THE CHEMISTRY OF PUMPKINING

"Honey, have you seen our pumpkin? Why it's out on the . . . oh they got it again" As October came, this was a typical conversation throughout hundreds of households as the seniors were pumpkining again. After endless nights of cruising in every town imaginable, nearly one thousand pumpkins were accumulated.

When the big night arrived, the class found itself totally assembled at the field house for the calm before the storm. And what a storm it was! Pumpkins were flying everywhere and if one was not careful he could end looking like a jack-o-latnern. After a gracious acceptance speech by the recipient, the class was on its way again. Now that is the only way to greet a new neighbor. Welcome to Reading Mr. Blodgett!!

Possibly the greatest thing to happen to football since the Dallas Cowboys, the incredibly powerful powderpuff football team took to the field once again. Lead by the mastermind coach Mike Donovan through weeks of preparation, they gave the teachers their best shot. But can these forty-nine girls really beat the teachers?

Of course not. With coach White's unusual formations and trick plays the teachers once again were victorious. Although backed up by head cheerleader Jim Green and his group of hairylegged helpers, the girls effort fell short once again. So much for the NFL.

THANKSGIVING FOOTBALL RALLY

First Row: Ann Gugger, Karen McSorley, Gayle Killam, Gina Iannetti, Paula O'Brien. Second Row: Kathy Berry, Sandy Melanson, Jean Kroeck, Cheryl MacDonald, Donna Richards.

The Thanksgiving Day rally led up to an exciting win for the R.M.H.S. Football Team over the traditional Stoneham rival. Gayle Killam received quite a round of well deserved applause when crowned Football Queen by Captains Eric Thompson and Kevin McKenna.

The Cheerleaders, the Band, and the Baton Squad clearly demonstrated the time and effort which they had put forth throughout the season. David Nugent and Captain Brian O'Neil handed down the famous cheer to next year's team who will have a difficult record to beat.

On November 24, the seniors raided Prince Spaghetti House in Saugus after the Thanksgiving football rally. In spite of the bad, rainy weather, we had a restaurant full of happy, hungry, and a few rambunctious seniors who managed to eat well over a hundred pizzas. Edward Haley, Brian Greenwood, Kevin Duff, Barry Greenwood, and Mike Phelan were finalists in the quarters game, each one having consumed over twenty pieces of pizza. Although the pizza wasn't that great, this was one of our first successful functions of the year.

The American Way Of Life

What is it?

We see it as ways of life. Not one way, but many. Like individuals. Each with their own distinct goal, life style, likes and dislikes, needs and wants.

That's the real American way of life. And the insurance industry helped protect it for hundreds of years. By individualizing products to help people protect their prized possessions — car, home or business. Or an income — so when laid up, the cash is there to help maintain a life style. Even a life — so a family unit can maintain its way of life after the catastrophic loss of the family head.

We're a business of people helping people preserve their ways of life.

That's our bag. What's yours? If it's helping people and you want to get involved, talk to American Mutual.

Call our Personnel Department for a glimpse at our way of life.
